OLD BUSINESS

NEW BUSINESS

1. Presentation: Recycling (on campus) by, Kristine Dungo, Waste Connections, Inc., Outreach Coordinator – the commission heard about smart trash and recycle use from the presentation. Commissioners learned how to make educated decisions when choosing to throw away trash. Overall the commissioners were encouraged to share information with peers, family, and school campus.
2. Bunnies & Bonnets parade participation – commissioners are interested in participating in the event. Staff will follow up with formalities of participation.
3. Sub-Committee Updates
 - a. YC/Library collaboration – group will meet over February break to discuss plan that could include AP Test preparations
 - b. Web resource(s) for teens – Group plans to use Google forms to collect data. All commissioners are encouraged to submit volunteer opportunities to commissioner Siddiqui for posting on website.
 - c. Arts festival – sub-committee is pursuing idea to have booth at the Boogie on the Avenue festival as well as collaborate with art teachers from the Campbell Union High School District.
 - d. Environmental focus – considering possible connection with Campbell Mayor Baker to coordinate a large clean-up event in April around Earth Day, also communicating with Public Works Director to arrange a one-day park clean up.
 - i. Comment from community member Fairbanks on possible environmental effort “Legacy Project” will be discussed in further detail at a future meeting.
 - e. Shadow city employee program- job shadow participants will likely do so on a Tuesday with the hopes of coordinating with the Executive Team and City Council for an overall experience of City of Campbell operations.
